

Long-Life Product Program

NEW PROGRAM, NEW LEVEL.

NVIDIA RTX™ products have always benefitted from NVIDIA’s carefully controlled and implemented design, build and test criteria, extended product availability, and fully documented lifecycle notifications. The new Long-Life Product Program (LLP) takes NVIDIA’s and PNY’s joint professional graphics customer commitment to the next level by offering product availability for approximately eight years, starting from product launch, for select mission-critical NVIDIA RTX products deployed across enterprises or embedded in customer solutions.

Five additional years of critical security updates and bug fixes, plus five years of extended hardware availability, add up to peace of mind – for customers ranging from end-users to IT professionals and systems integrators or OEMs.
